TENTATIVE CALENDAR ORDER

No. 22-1224 (L), Red Apple Development, LLC v. Rufus Road Partners, LLC
3:19-cv-00157-GCM-DCK

The court periodically schedules oral argument at law schools and universities throughout the Circuit. This case is tentatively calendared for in-person oral argument during the March 28, 2024, Joseph F. Rice School of Law at the University of South Carolina, oral argument session.

Any motions that would affect the scheduling of argument, including motions to submit on the briefs or to schedule oral argument in Richmond, Virginia, must be filed by 12/28/2023, or counsel must show that relief could not have been requested by that date. Motions must state whether opposing counsel consents to the requested relief.

Any conflicts that would affect the scheduling of argument and any additional cases counsel is tentatively scheduled to argue during this session must be identified by filing a Notice Regarding Conflict with Proposed Argument Dates (form available at www.ca4.uscourts.gov/court-form-fees) by 12/28/2023. The form should not be filed if counsel is available throughout the session and is arguing this case only. The court requires a total of four paper copies of all briefs and appendices filed by counsel in cases that are tentatively calendared for oral argument. If you previously filed one copy of your brief or appendix, you must now file three additional copies. If you previously filed three additional copies in response to an earlier tentative calendar order, no additional copies are required. If you have not yet filed your brief, you must file four paper copies and an electronic copy. The paper copy requirement applies to any briefs and appendices filed by counsel but not to pro se briefs. Paper copies must be identical as to cover, binding, page numbering, and formatting must match the electronic copy, and must comply with the Fourth Circuit Brief and Appendix Requirements. No ECF entry is made by counsel when filing paper copies of previously filed briefs and appendices.

Counsel will be notified either that the case has been scheduled for argument at this session or continued to the next available session. The identity of the panel hearing a case is not disclosed until the morning of argument.

For questions regarding scheduling of argument, please call 804-916-2714. For questions regarding required copies of briefs and appendices, please call 804-916-2700.
